

FOREWORD

The Southeast Asian Geotechnical Society (SEAGS) and now the Association of Geotechnical Societies of Asia (AGSSEA) as well, provide the Geotechnical Engineering Journal at affordable price to its members and others worldwide since 1970. From 2010 the Journal is jointly published by SEAGS and AGSSEA.

The papers published with the abstracts for the four decades 1970-1979, 1980-1989, 1990-1999 and 2000-2012 can be found in the Web

<http://www.seags.ait.ac.th>

<http://www.agssea.org>

The CDs containing the Full papers are available at 18th SEAGC in Singapore in May 2013 and thereafter the CD can be obtained at nominal price to cover the cost of production and distribution.

Copies of the original foreword in 1970 by Dr. Za-Chieh Moh and the lists of Editors and Guest Editors up to 2012 are also included.

It is hoped that the collection of papers will be useful to many researchers and practitioners alike.
