

Journal Rankings: Comparison:

There are over 200 journals now. I have picked the relevant ones. We fall under category 1 and the old Soil mechanics & Foundation Engineering, Geotechnical Engineering as we call. It is true that we have to improve. Category 2 and Category 3 are rather topics oriented in a sense.

We have to understand that within Category 1, in Asia we are behind Soils & Foundations. That is understandable. I have already mentioned the constraints we have in our operations and the limited researchers in SE Asia.

You may wish to visit these webs, if you really want to understand the finer points: no point is picking up terminologies from here and there Thomas Reuters and this and that & these and those.
