

Kevin Nash Gold Medal

Purpose

The Kevin Nash Gold Medal is awarded in memory of Professor Kevin Nash, Secretary General of the International Society (1965 - 1981). The medal is awarded to a person who, through distinction as an engineer, through international contributions to engineering practice and education, through contributions to international good will, and through service to the International Society, has made a major contribution to fostering the ideals and goals of the International Society for Soil Mechanics and Geotechnical Engineering throughout the world.

Nomination of candidates

The recipient is selected by a committee composed of the Past Presidents of the International Society, chaired by the immediate Past President, and the announcement is made at the opening of each International Conference. Presidents and Past Presidents are not eligible to receive the Award.
