

Singapore Premier Visit Jurong Man Made Rock Cavern

Jurong Rock Caverns (JRC) today. It is Southeast Asia's first underground facility for storing liquid hydrocarbons. By going deep under the seabed, we freed up 60 hectares of surface land, enough for six petrochemical plants.

Walking down into a storage cavern. We are 130m beneath the seabed, and the cavern is as tall as a 9-storey building!

